ABOUT Bevy

Quintessential Harlem girl, Gracie Award winner, and life-long New Yorker Bevy Smith is the host of Sirius XM's "Bevelations" on Radio Andy. Once a wildly successful luxury fashion publishing exec, Bevy shifted her professional goals over a decade ago to pursue a life in front of the camera. A pop culture aficionado and fashion expert, Bevy served as moderator of Bravo TV's revolutionary "Fashion Queens," and was a former co-host on the nationally syndicated "Page Six TV." Bevy continues to be part of "The Wendy Williams Show's Style Squad." Smith's debut book "Bevelations: Lessons from a Mutha, Auntie, Bestie" which details her transition from a fashion advertising executive into a media personality was published through Andy Cohen Books, the new eponymous imprint at Henry Holt and Company on January 12, 2021. For the past five years, Bevy has hosted "Fashion for Action," an annual fundraiser for Housing Works, a New York-based thrift store chain and advocacy group that helps find appropriate housing for people living with HIV and AIDS. In 2017, Smith was named Community Champion of AIDS Organization Harlem United. Additionally, Bevy is on the board of Cool Culture, a charity devoted to raising awareness among underprivileged children.

Bevy takes great pride in being a mentor to many formally and informally. Bevy is known by many (needs to note that she is a fairy god mother to many in the fashion entertainment and Publishing communities. And takes great pride in being a mentor.

LESSONS FROM A MUTHA, AUNTIE, BESTIE

4.9 OUT OF 5

Bevy Smith was living what seemed like a glamorous dream as a fashion advertising executive, blazing a lucrative career for herself in the whitewashed magazine world. She jet-setted to Europe for fashion shows, dined and danced at every hot spot, and enjoyed a mighty roster of lovers.

So it came as quite a shock to Bevy when one day, after arriving at her luxury hotel in Milan, she collapsed on the Frette bed sheets and sobbed. Years of rolling with the in-crowd had taken its toll. Her satisfaction with work and life had hit rock bottom. But Bevy could not be defeated, and within minutes (okay, days) she grabbed a notepad and started realizing a truer path—one built on self-reflection and, ultimately, clarity. She figured out how to redirect her life toward meaningful creativity and freedom.

In her signature lively and infectious voice (there's no one like Bevy!), Revelations candidly shares how she reclaimed her life's course and shows how we too can manifest our most bodacious dreams. From repossessing her bold childhood nature to becoming her own brand to envisioning her life's next great destination (which will feature natural hair, important charitable giving, and a midcentury house overlooking the Pacific Ocean), Bevy invites readers along on the route of her personal transformation to reveal how each of us can live our best lives with honesty, joy, and, when we're in the mood, a killer pair of shoes.

Page Six, the long-running gossip column of the New York Post, gets a TV version with this daily show featuring a group of hosts. Hollywood headlines are included in the gossip, of course, but the show goes beyond the entertainment industry to cover stories dealing with such topics as fashion, real estate and politics. The show's contributors bring their uniquely qualified perspectives, which they form by getting insider information from sources. Social media also has a place on the show, allowing viewers to weigh in with their thoughts on the day's headlines. Nobody is safe from the prying eyes of "Page Six TV," whether the person is a celebrity with a drug addiction or a philandering philanthropist.

Fashion Queens is a topical, fashion-based talk show featuring two of Atlanta's style elite, celebrity hairstylists Derek J and Miss Lawrence, and New York's fashion maven and media socialite, Bevy Smith. In each thirty-minute episode, the trendy opinionated trio cover anything and everything related to the world of fashion, from haute couture to celebrity style to unusual outfits from around the globe, giving their unique perspective on the trends, hits, and misses. Bringing their feisty fashion lexicon and colorful catchphrases to late night, segments include "The Week in Fashion" (major headlines from the week in fashion), "Reading Room" (calling out celebrities' fashion missteps), "Giving Me Wife" (when a Housewife looks fabulous), and the "Gag Award" (the highest fashion recognition on the show).
